

Light is vision.

History

Volpi – a company with tradition

- 1953 Founded as a sole proprietorship by S. Volpi. Company based in Urdorf, Switzerland. The object of the company was the development of special items to simplify the manufacturing of film materials. One of the first customers was Swiss television.
-
- 1964 For the Expo in Lausanne, Volpi provides a photographic facility which could project 57 pictures simultaneously on a 360° screen.
-
- 1966 Conversion to a publicly traded company. Expansion of the product line to include optical instruments for the inspection of cavities. Optical fiber technology followed shortly thereafter.
-
- 1978 Founding of Volpi Manufacturing USA (Volpi USA) in Auburn, NY, USA
-
- 1983 Founding of a branch in Wiesbaden, Germany
-
- 1986 Move to new premises in Schlieren, Switzerland
-
- 1991 Acquisition of the fiber optic division of Welch Allyn by VMC. In-house production of fiber optics
-
- 1993 Completion of new facilities for Volpi USA in the Auburn Technology Park.
-
- 1998 Inclusion of LED technology in the development portfolio
-
- 2000 DIN ISO 9001:2000 and ISO 13485:2000 certification of Volpi AG
-
- 2007 Acquisition of the Volpi Group and transfer of company leadership to Max Kunz
-